GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, June 1.-Predictions that the CHICAGO. June 1.—Predictions that the Kansas yield would amount to as much as 180,000,000 bushels had a bearish influence today on wheat. It was estimated that fewer than 400,000 agres sown would be abandoned. Black rust reports from Texas and Hessian fly damage in Nebraska, however, served to check the decline. Prices opened ½ to ¼ off to ½ up, hardened a trifle, and then made a decided downshoot.

Corn weakened with wheat, but rallied on account of continued adverse weather in Argentina. Opening prices, which were ½ lower to a like advance, were followed by a setback all around, but afterward by a moderate upturn.

Bullish crop advices from Illinois points brought good support for oats. The market, though, showed some sympathy with the declines in other cereals.

Provisions developed firmness owing to hog receipts being less numerous than expected. On the other hand, trade lacked volume.

No. 1348. R. F. Lang et al. agt. United States; opinion by Montgomery, presiding judge; castings of iron, which were reported by the appraiser to be parts of brewing machines, were assessed by the collector at 45 per cent as manufactures of metal; the importers protested that they were properly dutiable as iron castings; the board of general appraisers overruled the protest of the importers and the decision of the board is reversed.

No. 1299. Merck & Co. agt. United States; opinion by Smith, associate judge; opium in bricks and cakes was assessed by the collector at $2 a pound as opium advanced beyond the crude state; the importers protested that the merchandise is dutiable at $1.50 per pound as crude opium; the board of general appraisers overruled the protest of the importers and the decision of the board is reversed.

No. 1356. Edward Denika agt. United States; opinion by Smith, associate judge; engine wheels, mounted on axles, were sent from Texas to Mexico for repairs to their tires; upon reimportation the collector assessed duty on the wheels and axles as an entirety; the importers protested that only the tires had been advanced in value and were dutiable, and that the wheels and axles were American goods returned; the board of general appraisers overruled the protest of the importer and the decision of the board is reversed.

No. 1371. United States agt. Castle, porter and the decision of the board is reversed.

No. 1371. United States agt. Castle, Gotthell & Overton; opinion by Associate Judge Barber; wood pulp manufactured in Germany from pulp wood cut in Russia was assessed for duty by the collector under the tariff act of 1999; the importers protested that it was properly free of duty under the so-called Canadian reciprocity act of 1911; the board of general appraisers sustained the protest of the importers and the decision of of general appraisers sustained the protest of the importers and the decision of the board is affirmed.

No. 1372. United States agt. Sheldon & Company, et al.; opinion by Associate Judge Barber; merchandise invoiced as bar-le-duc red currants was assessed by the collector at 1 cent per pound and 35 per cent as preserved fruist; the importers protested that it was properly duitable at 35 per cent as jellies; the board of general appraisers sustained the protest of the importers and the decision of the board is reversed.

No. 1334. United States agt. American Express Company; opinion by Associate

No. 1334. United States agt. American Express Company; opinion by Associate Judge De Vries; the merchandise in this case was appraised and the collector assessed duty and liquidated the entry; the importers protested that they had duly filed an appeal to reappraisement, which was undecided, and that therefore the decision of the collector was void; the board of general appraisers sustained the protest of the importer and the decision of the board is affirmed.

No. 1367. Mary Van Alen Thompson agt. United States; opinion by De Vries, associate judge; the appellant arrived at the port of Boston, bringing with her various articles of personal effects, upon which duty was assessed by the collector; appellant claims that she was not a citizen of the United States, and that therefore her personal effects were properly free of duty; the board of general appraisers overruled the protest of the importer, and the devision of the board is reversed.

No. 1342. B. Ulmann & Co. agt United States; opinion by Martin, associate judge: the merchandise, which was assessed by the collector at 60 per cent as "coronation cord of cotton," was claimed by the importer not to be cord, but to be properly dutiable at 45 per cent as a manufacture of cotton not specially provided for; the board of general appraisers overruled the protest of the importer and the decision of the board is affirmed.

ENGLAND TO TAKE PART. Delegates to Congress of Thrift at San Francisco Assured.

Shenandoah and Potomac rivers were clear this morning.

England has accepted an invitation to participate in the International Congress of Thrift, planned to be held in San Francisco next summer, according to advices received today at the Washington head-quarters of the American Society for Thrift. Thomas Bowden Green, secretary of a similar society in Great Britain, will of a similar society in Great Britain, will be among the delegates. In a letter accepting the invitation Mr. Green says that the English delegates will urge upon the American organization the advisability of having schools and colleges conduct savings banks for the benefit of children and young people. A feature of the plan is to have the banks officered, managed and patronized by the students.

WOULD END DRINK IN NAVY.

Movement in England to Induce Men to Be Temperate. LONDON, May 22.-While it has not been suggested that the British admiralty follow the example of Secretary Daniels and prohibit the use of wines and liquors in the navy, a movement is afoot to induce the men to give up drink Admiral Sir G. King-Hall, speaking of this movement, said that temperance the navy was making progress all along the line, but there was still room for much improvement. He condemned the practice of giving out grog, and said 30 per cent of the men would give it up if some small addition to their pay were substituted. He hoped some first lord of the future would take up the matter with wisdom and boldness. It would mean only another $300,000 to the pay of the men to bring about the reform, which would lead to an increase in efficiency all around.

In the Indian army the progress of temperance is remarkable. According to officers back from India, about 50 per cent of the British soldiers there are total abstainers.
